

with Father Richard

FATHER RICHARD ANTHONY OSEBOLD
Our Third Pastor, 1984-Present

Father Richard, a native Detroit, was born on June 9, 1934, the youngest of 11 children.

After attending St. Elizabeth grade school, he went to Sacred Heart Seminary High School and College, and then to St. John's Seminary in Plymouth. Fr. Richard was ordained on June 4, 1960.

His first assignment after ordination was at St. Mary of Redford Parish. In 1963 he was appointed to the faculty of Sacred Heart Seminary first in the high school and then in the college department. He taught Latin and Greek at Sacred Heart for 18 years and served as Dean of Studies. During those years he was also involved in parish ministry as a weekend assistant, including St. John Bosco where he assisted Fr. Kundrat.

Fr. Richard was installed as pastor of our parish on June 30, 1984 and celebrated the 25th Anniversary of his ordination on June 9, 1985. Fr. Richard is also serving on the faculty of Sacred Heart Seminary part-time where he continues to teach Latin.

